INVESTMENT OFFERING

RDO Investments is pleased to present 12012 Frankstown Road, a 3,953 SF freestanding Bank of America located in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

The Bank of America provides the rare opportunity to acquire an absolute NNN ground lease interest in a new class "A" Bank of America retail banking location. The building was delivered in 2021 and features a 3,953 square foot retail banking center, two-lane drive through, 24/7 ATM access, a stunning modern façade, and beautiful new landscaping. Bank of America's 15-year Absolute NNN ground lease includes rare, attractive 12.5% rental increases every five years throughout the primary term and each of its two (2) five-year renewal options.

In September 2018 Bank of America opened its first location in the Pittsburgh MSA and announced plans to expand in this highly desirable market with an additional 15 financial centers over the course of two years. The Pittsburgh site is the bank's 68th in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the 10th in the region. By June 2020, Bank of America had climbed to #5 in deposits by market share in the Pittsburgh MSA (Federal Deposit Insurance Corp).

Bank of America is strategically located with excellent access and visibility along Frankstown Road/PA Route 380 (18,700 AADT). PA Route 380 is a major east/west corridor into downtown Pittsburgh. In the five-mile radius of the property, the bank serves a densely populated community of 171,794 people earning an average household income of $76,835. This heavily-populated trade area provides Bank of America with a stable built-in customer base well into the foreseeable future.

04. MARKET

Located in western Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh is known as "The Steel City" due to its historical role as a significant hub for steel production. Today, the city has become a center for technology, education, healthcare, and innovation.

The Pittsburgh MSA is home to over 80 regional colleges and universities. The site is just eight miles from two of the most prominent research universities in the region, Carnegie Mellon University (16,335 students) and the University of Pittsburgh (33,771 students). More than 350 of the world's most innovative companies have partnered with Carnegie Mellon through licensing and commercializing their technologies, creating a highly sought-after market for business.

These prestigious schools not only create a bustling population of students, but many of these graduates stay in the trade area after graduation for career opportunities in the region's burgeoning technology, robotics and AI, cyber security, and additive manufacturing industries. In Pittsburgh alone, there are 45,000 degrees conferred annually, with 12,000 in tech degrees and certifications, the second most computer science graduates in the country.

The area's region boasts more than 7,200 high-tech firms, making it the fifth largest technology hub in the nation. These high-tech firms employ more than 207,000 individuals, accounting for 23.4% of the area's workforce. The $10.8 billion total annual payroll of technology and related companies represent more than 34.9% of the region's wages. Since the city obtained its reputation for being a world-renowned organ transplantation center, there has been significant growth of fresh commercial ventures engaged in a widening list of life sciences disciplines (such as medical instruments and devices, cell research, tissue engineering, and biomedical informatics). There are 3,200 life sciences firms throughout the Pittsburgh region employing more than 117,000 people with a total annual payroll over $5.8 billion.

One of Pittsburgh's leading industries is healthcare, ranking 3rd in the number of jobs provided to area residents. "Medicine City" would describe Pittsburgh more accurately in this day and age, as the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center and Allegheny Health Network both employ over 60,000 people. UPMC was ranked 15th Best Hospital in the Nation by U.S. News and World Report Honor Roll 2021. UPMC operates 20 hospitals, 500 specialty care offices, and has 3,600 physicians. Since the decline of manufacturing companies in the 1980's, manufacturing in the Pittsburgh region has also steadily grown and returned to over $1 billion.
